CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation shall be the New Mexico District Council, Assemblies of God, Inc. The corporation will do business as the New Mexico Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God, hereinafter referred to as the New Mexico Ministry Network in this document.

ARTICLE II. TERRITORY

The territory shall include all of the State of New Mexico.

ARTICLE III. RELATIONSHIP

This Ministry Network is an integral part of the General Council of the Assemblies of God with headquarters at Springfield, Missouri. Therefore, the principles of unity and cooperative fellowship set forth in the Constitution of the General Council are the principles which shall govern the New Mexico Ministry Network.

ARTICLE IV. PREROGATIVES

- b. To set forth a basis of Christian fellowship and provide for counsel and cooperation among those of like precious faith (1 John 1).
- c. To establish and develop assemblies in the Fellowship in accordance with New Testament standards and principles.
- d. To examine candidates for the ministry and to recommend to the General Council Credential Committee those who shall meet the standards of the Scripture (II Timothy 3:17; Titus 1:5-9) and the requirements of the Ministry Network, and to assume the oversight of all ministerial matters in the Ministry Network as far as the Ministry Network or the General Council may be affected thereby.
- e. To elect its own officers and committees, to arrange for its own meetings and to govern itself.
- f. To establish and maintain network ministries and institutions as may be thought advisable for the pursuance of its work.
- g. To have the right to buy, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold in trust, use, convey, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of such property, real, or chattel, as may be useful for the prosecution of its works.

ARTICLE V. TENETS OF FAITH

The Bible is our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. This Statement of Fundamental Truths is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e., that we all speak the same thing,

1 Corinthians 1:10; Acts 2:42). The phraseology employed in this statement is not inspired or contended for, but the truth set forth is held to be essential to a full-gospel ministry. No claim is made that it contains all Biblical truth, only that it covers our need as to these fundamental doctrines.

1. The Scriptures Inspired

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

2. The One True God

The one true God has revealed Himself as the eternally self-existent "I AM," the Creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed Himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 43:10, 11; Matthew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

THE ADORABLE GODHEAD

(a) Terms Defined

The terms "trinity" and "persons," as related to the Godhead, while not found in the Scriptures, are words in harmony with Scripture, whereby we may convey to others our immediate understanding of the doctrine of Christ respecting the Being of God, as distinguished from "gods many and lords many." We therefore may speak with propriety of the Lord our God, who is One Lord, as a Trinity or as one Being of three persons, and still be absolutely scriptural (examples, Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; John 14:16, 17).

(b) Distinction and Relationship in the Godhead

Christ taught a distinction of persons in the Godhead which He expressed in specific terms of relationship, as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, but that this distinction and relationship, as to its mode is inscrutable and incomprehensible, because unexplained (Luke 1:35; 1 Corinthians 1:24; Matthew 11:25-27, 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; 1 John 1:3, 4).

(c) Unity of the One Being of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost

Accordingly, therefore, there is that in the Son which constitutes Him the Son and not the Father; and there is that in the Holy Ghost which constitutes Him the Holy Ghost and not either the Father or the Son. Wherefore the Father is the Begetter; the Son is the Begotten; and the Holy Ghost is the one proceeding from the Father and the Son. Therefore, because these three persons in the Godhead are in a state of unity, there is but one Lord God Almighty and His name one (John 1:18; 15:26; 17:11, 21; Zechariah 14:9).

(d) Identity and Cooperation in the Godhead

The Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost are never identical as to person; nor confused as to relation; nor divided in respect to the Godhead; nor opposed as to cooperation. The Son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son as to relationship. The Son is with the Father and the Father is with the Son, as to fellowship. The Father is not from the Son, but the Son is from the Father as to authority. The Holy Ghost is from the Father and the Son proceeding, as to nature, relationship, cooperation, and authority. Hence, no Person in the Godhead either exists or works separately or independently of the others (John 5:17-30, 32, 37; John 8:17, 18).

(e) The Title, Lord Jesus Christ

The appellation "Lord Jesus Christ" is a proper name. It is never applied in the New Testament either to the Father or to the Holy Ghost. It therefore belongs exclusively to the Son of God (Romans 1:1-3, 7; II John 3).

(f) The Lord Jesus Christ, God with us

The Lord Jesus Christ, as to His divine and eternal nature, is the proper and only Begotten of the Father, but as to His human nature, He is the proper Son of Man. He is, therefore, acknowledged to be both God and man; who because He is God and man, is "Immanuel," God with us (Matthew 1:23; I John 4:2, 10, 14; Revelation 1:13, 17).

(g) The Title, Son of God

Since the name "Immanuel" embraces both God and man, in the one Person, our Lord Jesus Christ, it follows that the title "Son of God" describes His proper deity, and the title "Son of Man," His proper humanity. Therefore, the title "Son of God" belongs to the order of eternity, and the title "Son of Man" to the order of time (Matthew 1:21-23; II John 3; I John 3:8; Hebrews 7:3; 1:1-13).

(h) Transgression of the Doctrine of Christ

Wherefore, it is a transgression of the doctrine of Christ to say that Jesus Christ derived the title "Son of God" solely from the fact of the Incarnation, or because of His relation to the economy of redemption. Therefore, to deny that the Father is a real and eternal Father, and that the Son is a real and eternal Son, is a denial of the distinction and relationship in the Being of God; a denial of the Father and the Son; and a displacement of the truth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh (II John 9; John 1:1, 2, 14, 18, 29, 49; I John 2:22, 23; 4:1-5; Hebrews 12:2).

(i) Exaltation of Jesus Christ as Lord

The Son of God, our Lord Jesus Christ, having by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, angels and principalities and powers having been made subject unto Him. And having been made both Lord and Christ, He sent the Holy Ghost that we, in the name of Jesus, might bow our knees and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father until the end, when the Son shall become subject to the Father that God may be all in all (Hebrews 1:3, I Peter 3:22; Acts 2:32-36; Romans 14:11; I Corinthians 15:24-28).

(j) Equal Honor to the Father and to the Son

Wherefore, since the Father has delivered all judgment unto the Son, it is not only the express duty of all in heaven and on earth to bow the knee, but it is as unspeakable joy in the Holy Ghost to ascribe unto the Son all the attributes of deity, and to give Him all the honor and the glory contained in all the names and titles of the Godhead (except those which express relationship. See paragraphs b, c, and d), and thus honor the Son even as we honor the Father (John 5:22, 23; I Peter 1:8; Revelation 5:6-14; Philippians 2:8, 9; Revelation 7:9, 10; 4:8-11).

3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Scriptures declare:

(a) His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31, 35).

(b) His sinless life (Hebrews 7:26; I Peter 2:22).

(c) His miracles (Acts 2:22; 10:38).

(d) His substitutionary work on the cross (I Corinthians 15:3; II Corinthians 5:21).

- (e) His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:39; I Corinthians 15:4).
- (f) His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9, 11; 2:33; Philippians 2:9-11; Hebrews 1-3).

4. The Fall of Man

Man was created good and upright; for God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." However, man by voluntary transgression fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:26, 27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12-19).

5. The Salvation of Man

Man's only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

(a) Conditions to Salvation

Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ. By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5-7).

(b) The Evidences of Salvation

The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24; Titus 2:12).

6. The Ordinances of the Church

(a) Baptism in Water

The ordinance of baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures. All who repent and believe on Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized. Thus they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10:47, 48; Romans 6:4).

(b) Holy Communion

The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements - bread and the fruit of the vine - is the symbol expressing our sharing the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (II Peter 1:4); a memorial of His suffering and death (I Corinthians 11:26); and a prophecy of His second coming (I Corinthians 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers "till He come."

7. The Baptism in the Holy Ghost

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the baptism in the Holy Ghost and fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian Church. With it comes the endowment of power for life and service, the bestowment of the gifts and their uses in the work of the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4, 8; I Corinthians 12:1-31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the new birth (Acts 8:12-17; 10:44-46; 11:14-16; 15:7-9). With the baptism in the Holy Ghost come such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37-39; Acts 4:8), a deepened reverence for God (Acts 2:43; Hebrews 12:28), an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His Word, and for the lost (Mark 16:20).

8. The Initial Physical Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Ghost

The baptism of believers in the Holy Ghost is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (I Corinthians 12:4-10, 28), but different in purpose and use.

9. Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God (Romans 12:1, 2; I Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). The Scriptures teach a life of "holiness without which no man shall see the Lord" (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Ghost we are able to obey the command: "Be ye holy, for I am holy" (I Peter 1:15, 16). Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1-11, 13; 8:1, 2, 13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12, 13; I Peter 1:5).

10. The Church and Its Mission

The Church is the Body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and Church of the Firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22, 23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23). Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshiped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, the priority reason-for-being of the Assemblies of God as part of the Church is:

- (a) To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1:8; Matthew 28:19, 20; Mark 16:15, 16).
- (b) To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (I Corinthians 12:13).
- (c) To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11-16; I Corinthians 12:28; 14:12).

The Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. This experience:

- (a) Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15-20; Acts 4:29-31; Hebrews 2:3, 4).
- (b) Adds a necessary dimension to worshipful relationship with God (I Corinthians 2:10-16; I Corinthians 12, 13, and 14).
- (c) Enables them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ (Galatians 5:22-26; I Corinthians 14:12; Ephesians 4:11, 12; I Corinthians 12:28; Colossians 1:29).

11. The Ministry

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the threefold purpose of leading the Church in:

- (1) Evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15-20).
- (2) Worship of God (John 4:23, 24).
- (3) Building a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son

(Ephesians 4:11-16).

12. Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the Atonement, and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:16, 17; James 5:14-6).

13. The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the Church (I Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; I Corinthians 15:51, 52).

14. The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27, 30; Revelation 1:7; 19:11-14; 20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel (Ezekiel 37:21, 22; Zephaniah 3:19, 20; Romans 11:26, 27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6-9; Psalm 72:3-8; Micah 4:3, 4).

15. The Final Judgment

There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Matthew 25:46; Mark 9:43-48; Revelation 19:20; 20:11-15; 21:8).

16. The New Heavens and the New Earth

"We, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (II Peter 3:13; Revelation 21, 22).

A decision to disaffiliate shall require a two-thirds vote of the membership, or a more restrictive rule prescribed by the governing documents of the church or New Mexico Ministry Network. In

The offenders shall be subject to reprimand or, if persisted in, appropriate discipline.
- k. Ministers shall not be limited or restrained from entering doors to preach this Pentecostal message, so long as they retain Assemblies of God doctrine, standards of holiness, proper attitudes, and proper ministerial conduct without compromise. Inasmuch as unity is a vital principle for growth and spiritual development of the Assemblies of God Fellowship, it is essential that we recognize our relationship to each other and that we practice Christian cooperation in all our pastoral, evangelistic, missionary, and local church work. We recommend therefore that our ministers confer with the Network Executive Officers before engaging in ministry in any church group or organization not affiliated with the Assemblies of God so as to ascertain whether such ministry might result in confusion or misunderstandings. If the minister does not have Network approval, he or she shall be expected to refrain from conduction services for the church. Ministers who violate this principle shall be subject to discipline.
- l. All credentialed ministers are expected to attend and support a local Assemblies of God church. Special exceptions may be granted by the Network Executive/Network Pastor and Area Presbyter.

Section 7. Voluntary Cooperative Fellowship and Commitment to the Fellowship

Commitment is an active loyalty to our constitutional agreements, a cooperative spirit and a readiness to seek and receive the counsel of older mature Christians and those in the positions of authority.

By voluntary it is meant that, upon learning the principles, doctrines, and practices of the Assemblies of God, and by seeing the benefits to be derived from being associated with such an organization, persons of their own free choice decide to become members, thus subscribing to all that for which the organization stands.

For the minister, by cooperation, it is meant one shall comply with all decisions setting forth and defining duties and responsibilities incumbent upon members of the organization. It includes active participation and respect for the will of the majority expressed through constitutional processes.

Voluntary cooperation means when a minister becomes a member of the Assemblies of God, this cooperation and participation becomes obligatory and not optional.

Section 8. Discipline of Ministers

- a. Occasions sometimes arise which make it necessary to deal with ministers affiliated with us who for some reason have reached the place where their conduct of the ministry has been brought in question. It is obvious that the Credentials Committee, which has the authority to recognize ministers, also has the right to determine the merits of complaints and to withdraw approval when necessary. General ineffectiveness in the ministry, failure or inability to correctly represent our Pentecostal testimony, a continuous non-cooperative spirit, failure to support the Ministry Network with required ministerial tithes, a declared open change in doctrinal views, immoral, unethical or illegal practices related to personal, church or ministry finances, a marriage in opposition to our constitutional stand on marriage and divorce, etc., may give cause for the action of the Committee.

Complaints against a minister shall be filed in writing with the Ministry Network Officials and must be signed by the complainant(s). The Executive Director/Network Pastor shall make investigation and report to the Presbytery. If in their judgment the cause seems to require judicial action, the accused shall be given a proper hearing before the Presbytery, or before a committee appointed by the same, and if the seriousness of the charges is verified, he shall be disciplined in accordance with General Council procedure.

A two-thirds majority vote of the Presbytery shall be necessary to discipline any member of the Ministry Network, and said decision shall be regarded as final. The minister thus dealt with may avail himself of the rights of appeal as granted by the Constitution and Bylaws of the General Council.

- b. The following procedure shall be used for Ministers who fail to support the Ministry Network on a regular basis in accordance with Article XII. paragraph b.:
 - (1) Those who fail to support for nine months shall meet with the Presbytery in accordance with the bylaws.

Section 9. Reinstatement of Ministers

- a. Application for reinstatement shall be made to the Ministry Network Presbytery. The application shall be considered subject to the approval of the district in which the termination was made and by the General Council Executive Presbytery. All applications for reinstatement shall include a "Consent to Release of Information" form and a background screening. It shall be the duty of the presbytery to review the case and interview the applicant.
- b. Minimal time-lapse for dismissed ministers. The minimal time-lapse required before a minister who has been dismissed is eligible for reinstatement shall be 1 year, except it shall be 2 years for a minister who has been dismissed because of charges as stated in GC Bylaws, Article X, Section 3, paragraph a. The time-lapse shall be computed from the date of the presbytery action as it appears on the ministerial status report filed with the General Council Credentials Committee.
- c. Restoration - See General Council Constitution, Article IX, Section 9.

Section 10. Spouses of Deceased Ministers

 1. Each credentialed minister shall send at least 10% of their ministerial income (salary and housing) each month as tithes/dues to the Ministry Network, which is 100% of their ministerial title – less General Council dues.
 2. The New Mexico Ministry Network minimum tithe/dues requirements are $25.00 per month for Ordained ministers, which equals the General Council requirements of $300.00 per year, $25.00 per month for Licensed ministers, which equals the General Council requirement of $240.00 per year, and $10.00 per month for Certified ministers, which equals the General Council requirement of $120.00 per year.
 3. Senior-retired and disabled ministers are exempt from the mandatory tithing obligations.

 5. All minister tithes/dues shall be remitted monthly and compliance with the above requirements shall be a prerequisite for renewal of all active members.
- c. Voluntary Ministry Network Ministerial Retirement Program
 1. Those making the full contribution (tithes/dues) as noted in paragraph (b) may elect to participate in the retirement program as established by the Presbytery in which ten percent (10%) of the tithes/dues shall be contributed to the minister's MBA/403b account that is managed by Assemblies of God Financial Solutions.
 2. Deposits to the minister's individual account will be made four times a year. In order for one to participate they must complete an enrollment form and be current with their minimum tithes support.

ARTICLE XIII. LOCAL ASSEMBLIES

Section 1. Guidelines

- a. A Constitution and Bylaws shall be adopted and approved by Ministry Network Officers when a church is set in order. Any local church adopting such a Constitution and Bylaws shall file a copy with the Ministry Network Office. Each local assembly shall place in its Constitution and Bylaws a provision that the voting constituency of the local church shall include those who are 18 years of age or older. It shall provide in its Constitution and Bylaws that only accredited members whose names appear on the roster be permitted to vote.

- b. General Council affiliated churches may adopt articles of incorporation, a constitution and bylaws compatible with models recommended by the Ministry Network, or Ministry Network approved governance models that provide for adequate accountability, amenability, and safeguard so that a pastor and/or governing board cannot directly or indirectly exert dictatorial control over a church. When Bylaws are amended an updated copy should be filed with the Network office.
- c. When churches are set in order, the Executive Director/Network Pastor or Assistant Executive Director shall chair the meeting.
- d. New Mexico Ministry Network Policy Manual: There shall be a Ministry Network manual containing policies and procedures of the Ministry Network affiliated churches. It shall be developed and kept current by the Presbytery.
- e. When conditions arise in any local assembly which, in the judgment of the Ministry Network Officers, prevent the church from properly functioning as a sovereign body, it shall be the duty of the Area Presbyter, together with the other Ministry Network Officers, to immediately assume responsibility and direction of such assembly until adjustments are made in conformity with Ministry Network policies and standards.
- f. All assemblies shall remain under the supervision of the Ministry Network Officials until the church is sufficiently mature, and has proven membership scripturally qualified to perform the regular duties of church government, and has been set in order. Such assemblies shall be governed by the Network Policy Manual for Ministry Network-Affiliated Churches.
- g. It is recommended that members request a letter of introduction from the church of which they are a member to be sent by mail to the church with which they desire to affiliate. It is recommended that the receiving church shall give an acknowledgment of transfer to the former church.
- h. Minimum Membership: An adult membership of not less than 20 persons. (See 36th General Council Resolution #20, 1975 Minutes, p. 64.)
- i. Each church should support the Ministry Network monthly with an offering in the amount of two percent of their general fund monthly income to support the Partnership for the Next Generation.
- j. When the Ministry Network Officials shall deem it necessary, they shall be authorized to initiate a meeting with the senior pastor and the church board, the senior pastor alone, or the church board in case of a senior pastoral vacancy, as pertaining to agreement and cooperation with Ministry Network Policies, Doctrines, and Practices.

- k. Each assembly should adopt a screening policy for all staff, employees, and volunteers of the local church. An effective Policy is available through the Ministry Network office.
- l. Local church ministerial credential: A General Council church may issue a ministerial credential pursuant to basic guidelines adopted by the General Presbytery and such additional guidelines adopted by the Ministry Network. It shall be a non-transferable credential (limited to the issuing local church).
- m. Provision shall be made by the Ministry Network for parent-affiliated assemblies which shall be under the supervision of a parenting church, in accordance with the parenting church's constitution and bylaws.

Section 2. Church Board

- a. The Board members shall act in an advisory capacity with the senior pastor in matters pertaining to church administration.
- b. All deacons shall meet the standard for deacons as outlined in the Scriptures (I Timothy 3:8-13).
- c. Upon the resignation of a senior pastor, the church board is authorized to select a chairperson from their own ranks to serve until a new senior pastor has been selected.

Section 3. Election of Senior pastor

- a. When a senior pastor resigns his/her Assembly, he/she should contact the Executive Director/Network Pastor and Presbyter so that assistance can be given the Assembly in the selection of a senior pastor.
- b. The Assembly is asked to let the Executive Director/Network Pastor and Presbyter know by letter or phone when a senior pastoral vacancy exists.
- c. The church is encouraged to contact the Network office and request assistance in this process.
- d. Only one name shall be placed in nomination, and the one nominated shall be voted on before another name is considered. Any member of the Assembly may suggest names for the consideration of the Nominating Committee, but no name shall be placed in nomination and no prospective senior pastor shall be contacted until the Official Board has received the recommendation of the Presbyter or Executive Director/Network Pastor. The Executive Director/Network Pastor, Assistant Executive Director and the Presbyter may become an Advisory Committee to the Church Board in selection of a senior pastor.

- e. Each assembly shall make provision for a senior pastor who is a credentialed minister in good standing with the General Council and/or a Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God.
- f. It is recommended that our assemblies require a two-thirds vote when selecting a senior pastor to serve for a first term and that the length of term be for at least two years.
- g. It is recommended that our assemblies require only a majority vote when a senior pastor is being voted on to succeed himself.
- h. It is recommended that our assemblies call their senior pastors for an indefinite period of time following the completion of their first term. Initiative to terminate such an indefinite call can be made by the senior pastor by giving the church a 30-day written notice of his intentions. Initiative to terminate such an indefinite call can come through a petition signed by one-third of the membership or by a vote of the Church Board. In either event, the Executive Director/Network Pastor shall immediately be notified, and he shall arrange to conduct a special business meeting to determine the wishes of the church concerning such a senior pastoral termination.
- i. In the event of a senior pastoral change, the church shall require the resignation of all ministerial (credentialed and non-credentialed) and office staff. Proper consideration should be given to the said staff as to timing, severance, vacation, or other benefits, avoiding hardship when it is possible.

Section 4. Safeguarding the Assemblies

- a. Pastors and leaders of assemblies should make proper investigation of persons who seek to gain entrance to teach, minister, or pastor. Use of the platform should be denied until spiritual integrity and reliability have been determined. It is recommended that Assemblies of God churches use Assemblies of God ministers since the use of non-Assemblies of God ministers may bring confusion and problems detrimental to the Fellowship.
- b. No minister dismissed by the Assemblies of God may be allowed to pastor or have ministry in an Assemblies of God church. Pastors and district/network officials should maintain an exchange of information regarding dismissed ministers known to be seeking ministry in our assemblies.

ARTICLE XIV. MINISTRY NETWORK AND CHURCH PROPERTY

- a. The Executive Officers shall constitute a Board of Trustees of Ministry Network Property, and said Board shall be authorized to buy, sell, own, lease, or otherwise consummate any real estate transactions.
- b. Each local Assembly shall have a Board of Trustees, who shall be authorized to buy, sell, own, lease, or otherwise consummate any real estate transactions, provided they are instructed to do so by the church and/or Ministry Network Officers.

- c. Every senior pastor shall be required to make a thorough investigation of the church property title, where he may be called to senior pastor, and claim yearly tax exemptions.
- d. All assemblies shall conform to the necessary legal requirements and become incorporated and seek the guidelines and assistance of the Ministry Network Officers.
- e. The Executive Administrator shall be authorized to make investigations concerning church property title and yearly tax exemptions.

ARTICLE XV. DOCTRINES AND PRACTICES DISAPPROVED

In accord with its constitutional prerogatives, The General Council of the Assemblies of God has declared itself pertaining to disapproval of certain matters as follows:

Section 1. Unconditional Security

In view of the Biblical teaching that the security of the believer depends on a living relationship with Christ (John 15:6); in view of the Bible's call to a life of holiness (I Peter 1:16; Hebrews 12:14); in view of the clear teaching that a man may have his part taken out of the Book of Life (Revelation 22:19); and in view of the fact that one who believes for a while can fall away (Luke 8:13), the General Council of the Assemblies of God disapproves of the unconditional security position which holds that it is impossible for a person once saved to be lost.

Section 2. Legalism

- a. Matters of Conscience
The Assemblies of God disapproves of those who hold to matters of conscience, such as the eating or not eating of meats, who press their personal opinions on others.
- b. Adding Conditions to Salvation
The Assemblies of God also disapproves of those who hold to issues which seem to add conditions to salvation, such as the keeping of the seventh day, who press their opinions on others.

Section 3. Eschatological Errors

- a. The Restitution of All Things
The Assemblies of God understands the teaching of Acts 3:21 to limit the restoration to that of which the prophets have spoken, thus denying the universal redemption theory. We are opposed to all forms of universalism (Matthew 25:46; Revelation 20:10).
- b. Setting a Date for the Lord's Return
It is unwise to teach that the Lord will come at some specified time, thereby setting a date for His appearing (Mark 13:32, 33; Luke 12:37-40; I Thessalonians 5:2). It is also unwise to give out from the platform, or publish, visions of numbers and dates fixing the time of the second coming of the Lord.

c. Post-Tribulation Rapture

The General Council of the Assemblies of God has declared itself in the Statement of Fundamental Truths that it holds to the belief in the imminent coming of the Lord as the Blessed Hope of the Church; and since the teaching that the Church must go through the Tribulation tends to bring confusion and division among the saints, it is recommended that all our ministers teach the imminent coming of Christ, warning all men to be prepared for that coming, which may occur at any time, and not lull their minds into complacency by any teaching that would cause them to feel that specific Tribulation events must occur before the Rapture of the saints.

d. Amillennialism

The General Council of the Assemblies of God disapproves of the amillennial teaching and its attendant erroneous philosophy which denies the fact of a literal 1,000 years' reign of Christ on earth, and substitutes for it the theory that this Christian or Church dispensation is the spiritual millennium of which, its proponents say, the Bible writers prophesied.

We recommend that should any of our ministers embrace any of the foregoing eschatological errors, they refrain from preaching or teaching them. Should they persist in emphasizing these doctrines to the point of making them an issue, their standing in the Fellowship will be seriously affected (Luke 21:34-36; I Thessalonians 5:9, 10; II Thessalonians 1:4-10; Revelations 3:10, 19, 20).

Section 4. Membership in Secret Orders

Ours is a last-day message in preparation for the coming of the Lord (Matthew 24:14), leaving us no alternative but wholehearted devotion to the cause of spreading the gospel (Luke 9:62), and it is well known that the various secret orders require much valuable time and interest, thus, diverting the servant of the Lord out of the way (Ephesians 5:16). The nature of such organizations demands secrecy (John 18:20; Acts 26:26) reinforced by religious oaths (Matthew 5:34) and strong attachment by binding obligations to persons who are for the most part un-regenerated (II Corinthians 6:14). The spirit, philosophy, and general influence of such secret orders aim at the improvement of the natural man only (I Corinthians 2:14; Colossians 2:8), thus wrongly channeling by incorrect interpretation important spiritual truths (II Peter 3:16). Confidence in these secret orders and their teachings has always tended toward the embracing of a false hope of salvation through good works and improved moral service (II Peter 3:16).

In consideration of the foregoing, all ministers affiliated with us should refrain from identifying themselves with any of the secret orders which we recognize as essentially of the world, worldly, and we advise any who may have identified themselves with such orders to sever their connections therewith (II Corinthians 6:17). Furthermore, our ministers are requested to use their good influence among our lay members to dissuade them from such fraternal affiliations (I Timothy 4:12; II Timothy 2:24-26).

Section 5. Divorce and Remarriage

a. Membership

(1) There are now among Christian people those who became entangled in their marriage relations in their former lives of sin and who do not see how these matters can be adjusted. We recommend that these people be received into the membership of the local assemblies and that their marriage complications be left in the hands of the Lord (I Corinthians 7:17, 20, 24).

- b. Remarriage
Low standards on marriage and divorce are very hurtful to individuals, to the family, and to the cause of Christ. Therefore, we discourage divorce by all lawful means and teaching. We positively disapprove of Christians getting divorces for any cause except fornication and adultery (Matthew 19:9). Where these exceptional circumstances exist or when a Christian has been divorced by an unbeliever, we recommend that the question of remarriage be resolved by the believer as he walks in the light of God's Word. (I Corinthians 7:15, 27, 28).
- c. Local Church Leadership
 - (1) Since the New Testament restricts divorced and remarried believers from the church offices of bishop, or elder, and deacon, we recommend that this standard be upheld by all our assemblies (Titus 1:5-9; I Timothy 3:12). However, we recommend that all other opportunities for Christian service for which these believers may be qualified be made available to them.
 - (2) It is understood that recommendations are not binding, but local assemblies shall maintain the prerogative of setting their own standards (in accord with provisions of Article XI of the Constitution).
- d. Performing Marriage Ceremonies
 - (1) We discourage any Assemblies of God minister performing a marriage ceremony for anyone who has been divorced and whose former companion is still living unless his case is included in the exceptional circumstances described in Article XV, Section 5, paragraph "b". An Assemblies of God minister is urged to counsel applicants for marriage ceremonies with scriptural guidelines for Christian marriage prior to the performing of the ceremony who, in the minister's opinion, approach marriage without proper aforethought, wisdom, and sobriety.
 - (2) We realize that the remarrying of such persons included in the exception circumstances in Article XV, Section 5, paragraph "b", could violate the conscience of a minister, and if this should be the case, the minister should not be expected to perform such ceremonies.
- e. Ministerial Credentials:
We disapprove of any married minister of the Assemblies of God holding credentials if either minister or spouse has a former companion living, unless the divorce occurred prior to his or her conversion or for the scriptural causes of a former spouse's marital unfaithfulness (Matthew 19:9), or the abandonment of the believer by the unbeliever (I Corinthians 7:10-15), except as hereinafter provided. (See also, Article XV, Section 5, paragraphs "b" and "c".)

Section 6. Worldliness

In view of the alarming erosion of national moral standards, we reaffirm our intention of holding up Bible standard against all forms of worldliness. We urge all believers to "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world... For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (I John 2:15, 16).

In its teaching regarding worldliness, the Scripture warns against: Participation in activity which defiles the body, or corrupts the mind and spirit; the inordinate love of, or preoccupation with pleasures, position, or possessions, which lead to their misuse; manifestations of extreme behavior, unbecoming speech, or inappropriate appearance; and fascination or association which lessens one's affection from spiritual things (Luke 21:34, 35; Romans 8:5-8; 12:1, 2; II Corinthians 6:14-18; Ephesians 5:11; I Tim. 2:8-10; 4:12; James 4:4; I John 2:15-17; Titus 2:12).

Section 7. Abuses of Stewardship

a. Tithing

- (1) According to the Scriptures, tithes should be used for the support of the active ministry and for the propagation of the gospel and work of the Lord and not be given to charity or used for other purposes. In tithing, the ministers ought to be examples.
- (2) We recognize the duty of tithing and urge all our people to pay tithes to God. It is recommended that arrangements satisfactory to the minister and the church be made by all ministers and churches, so that the minister may receive regular and adequate support. We disapprove, however, of the teaching that all tithes necessarily should belong to the minister for his support.

b. Solicitation of Funds

- (1) It is considered improper and unethical for ministers or missionaries to solicit funds by letter or otherwise for anything or any reason whatsoever without proper authorization.
- (2) The purpose of this section is not to hinder or discourage legitimate projects but to protect the Fellowship from those who employ methods not in harmony with Assemblies of God principles or policies. Leaders in local projects shall have unquestioned freedom in local churches or communities. Projects of general interest to the Ministry Network must have the authorization of the Ministry Network Officials. Projects or institutions of national scope must have the authorization of the Executive Presbytery of the General Council of the Assemblies of God. Promotion of all projects of a missionary character must have the authorization of the Executive Presbytery.
- (3) The obtaining and use of mailing lists for promotional purposes not having proper authorization or which are not in keeping with policies of The General Council of the Assemblies of God shall be considered improper and unethical, whether it be under the name of a prayer chain beyond a local scope, chain letters, or appeals to the constituency for the support of ventures of strictly local or personal character. All offenders guilty of the practices expressed in the foregoing paragraphs shall be subject to discipline.

c. Private Ownership of Religious Institutions

The General Council of the Assemblies of God approves the holding of title to all church buildings, schools, or other institutions that are supported by funds solicited for the work of God by properly constituted corporations. It disapproves the holding of title to such properties by the ministers of the Assemblies of God, through private ownership, corporation of sole, closed corporation or any other type of ownership where initiative of action or final authority is not vested in a corporation of the whole. In the event a local congregation is not incorporated or set in order by the Ministry Network, title should be vested in properly qualified trustees. Where private ownership exists, a properly incorporated body shall be formed and title to the property shall be transferred to the corporation taking into consideration equity that the title-holder may legitimately have.

A disregard of this principle and recommendation shall seriously affect the relationship to the Assemblies of God of members involved in such ownership.

Section 8. Interdenominational or Ecumenical Relationships

The New Mexico Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God encourages ministers and churches to fellowship with other Christians of like precious faith who hold to the inspiration of Scripture, the deity of Christ, the universality of sin, the substitutionary Atonement, the physical resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and His second coming.

The New Mexico Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God shall not belong to any interdenominational or ecumenical organization that denies the evangelical beliefs stated in the above paragraphs, and urges its ministers and churches to avoid entanglement with interdenominational or ecumenical organizations except as opportunities arise to support biblical values in the culture or provide opportunities to bear witness of our evangelical and Pentecostal faith and experience.
